

Step Into The Picture

The life of Jesus through the eyes of an artist

All Hallows by the Tower

15th August to 6th October

An exhibition of contemporary illuminations by Paul Forsey

Admission free

All Hallows by the Tower,

Byward Street, London, EC3R 5BJ

■ Nearest Tube: Tower Hill ■ DLR: Tower Gateway

■ Buses: 15, 42, 78, 100, RV1, N15

For more information about this exhibition please visit www.ahbtt.org.uk ver a period of two years, Paul Forsey produced 24 paintings about the life of Jesus. These works recall the direct storytelling style of the Illuminated Manuscript, combined with contemporary details that are “. . . so witty and enjoyable.”

“ a wonderful collection of stunning pictures”

‘Step Into The Picture’ is the exhibition of these paintings that became the book ‘The life of Jesus through the eyes of an artist’. This was a joint project that involved the artist, the Diocese of Oxford and the publisher Barnabas (www.brf.org.uk).

“ . . . a magical way of pulling people into the picture with subtle humour”

These paintings have visited York Minster, Sheffield Catholic Cathedral, Lincoln Minster, The Cathedral of Bath and Wells, Douai Abbey and Winchester Cathedral.

For more information about the artist, the project and how the work developed, please visit www.stepintothepicture.co.uk or for information about the exhibition www.ahbtt.org.uk